Monthly REPORT - April 2013

Introduction

During the month of April, after a period of calmness there has been a huge security collapse and escalation of war. The battle field has extended to Northern Kordofan state up to the border with White Nile State, following the breakdown of the negotiations between SPLAM- N and the Sudanese government in Addis Ababa. The Sudan Revolutionary Front Forces (SRF) led by SPLA -N conducted series of military operations and captured a number of towns in both south and north Kordofan, extending the rebel controlled areas and effected war areas to reach up to White Nile State. This has resulted into a massive influx of IDPS across the region. The governmental detention operation is going on despite the presidential amnesty declared by Al Bashir earlier in April.

Political developments

This reporting month has witnessed very important political events including the political settlement reached between Sudan and South Sudan, which resulted in commencing the pumping of South Sudan oil; the visit of Al Bashir to South Sudan; the start of direct negotiations between SPLM - N and Sudan government and particular important the general amnesty declared by the Sudanese president. These political developments led to some sort of optimism among the public and concerned bodies and individuals. However, it all turned against their wishes.

Early in the month the Sudanese president Omar Al Bashir announcement a general amnesty, which was hoped to bring a relief to so many detainees' families. Unfortunately, the decision was so selective and ethnic in nature, more than two hundred of Darfur, Nuba and Blue Nile detainees were Ignored, whereas almost all detainees from other parts of Sudan were released.

Security

There has been a serious changes in the security situation:

- On the 11th April the Sudan Council of Ministers endorsed the creation of West Kordofan State. This decision is believed to be one of the main factors of escalating the fight in the region, together with the continuous aerial bombarding of SPLA- N controlled areas, which led to many fatality and injuries among civilians.
- 12th April, 2013 marked the first visit of the Sudanese president to South Sudan since the separation in July 2011. On the same day the SPLA - N shelled Kadugli town with three bombs led to the death of four civilians.
- On the 15th April the SPLA - N clashed with government troops and captured three areas 20 km east of Kadugli, namely Adandor, Baagaya and Al-Remeila.
- Immediately after the 26th April negotiation between SPLM -N and the government of Sudan had broken down, on 27th April, the NRF conducted an extensive military operations, that was considered to be the first of its kind in so many ways.
 - ☒ Firstly It is the first joint operation carried by all the parties of NRF.
 - ☒ Secondly, the battle field has been moved to extreme north to North Kordofan State by attacking the second biggest town in Kordofan region (Umm Rawaba).
 - ☒ lastly the fighting took place in many areas extended from the extreme southern part of South Kordofan to the border of North Kordofan with White Nile and three towns (Abu Kershola, Chamchaka and Kateera) have been captured, all these fighting happened simultaneously.

Humanitarian situation

As a result of the above mentioned security collapse, it is estimated that more 30,000 people from Abu Kershola and the surrounding villages have fled their homes, estimated to be around 20,000 out of them settled in El Rahad, and the remaining with other people from Um Rawaba and Umm berembeita have moved to further towns (Khartoum, El Obeid, Kosti, Madani, and Sinar).

The number of IDPs in El Rahad, who fled from Abu Kershola is located in four schools and their relatives who live in the town. They received some aid in form of food and basic commodities from the government, El Rahad Commercial Chamber and the local residents community. However, need still persist.

Abu Kershola: It is small town lays on fertile area at the northern part of Eastern region of South Kordofan state, and it surrounded by many villages. This area known for agricultural and gardening activities. It is community consists of Hawazma Arab tribe (mainly Asserra, Aiatga and Tougeiya), and non Nuba ethnicity (Fallata, Hawsa, Barno and Bargo). But the Nubian is a very small group (this group now facing a very serious threats among the IDPs in El Rahad). Please note that, the situation of the IDPs in Al-mashagga, Um Marreh Village, Mabsut Village, and other camps are getting worse and worse, and many IDPs started to leave the camps, due to the scarcity of water and lack of food. It is expected that a large number of them will join Abu Kershola IDPs in El-Rahad camps very soon in search of water, foods and shelter. Unless the security challenges from government authorities and El Rahad IDPs (ethnicity issues) towards them may prevent them to do that.

Arrests:

The campaign still continuing in South Kordofan, more than 10 have been arrested in April, and those Christian detainees who have been released earlier in the month are still reporting to NISS offices on a daily basis. It is expected that the number of arbitrary arrests will increase dramatically, as a result of the latest SRF attacks, this will target a groups of Nuba Mountains, Blue Nile and Darfur, and will be particularly vulnerable .

The situation of the rest of the detainees remained the same, they are still not allowed to contact neither their families nor their lawyers, the detention condition which least be described as inhuman. Also those who have been missed still no information about where they are or their detention conditions.

In response to the presidential amnesty and after strong advocacy campaign and load of appeals by local and international organizations, 22 detainee from the Nuba Mountains (as reported to HUDO) have been released between 4th -25th April. Below are their details;

- ✓ 6 detainees from Khartoum prisons and detention cells (a female and five males).
- ✓ 16 detainee from Kadugli prison / South Kordofan state (the 14 females who were moved from El Obeid prison and other two males (in Kadugli prison).

The above mentioned detainees spent between 5 and 14 month in detention..

Sporadic events:

- On 25th April 2013, 14 women out of 32 women in Kadugli prison were released after spending over more than five months in Kadugli and EL Obeid prisons. The decision was taken by the State security committee, which consists of the deputy state governor Gen. Ahammed Khamees (chairperson) and members of the head of the Judiciary in the state, the chief prosecuting attorney in the state, the police commissioner of the state and representative from National Intelligence Security Services (NISS) and others with detainees attendance. Before being released, they have badly abused and insulted. They have also been accused / blamed for those who died in the active war in the region. After cases/charges were opened against them, they were released under bail condition and other strict conditions like; Not allowed to move outside the territory of the state unless permitted by the state security committee; will be held responsible if any case of shelling ,death or any threat occur to the state; threatened to be re-arrested under the cases opened based on criminal law act 1991 read with emergency law 1998 after that they were forced to sign a document committing themselves with all the above mentioned accusations.
- The press release of the Sudanese minister of guidance and endowments stating that (no more churches will be erected in Sudan and that Christians are not allowed to construct any new churches) has resulted into wide resentment among national and international human rights and civil societies and organizations.
- All the detainees who got released and who are government employees lost their jobs, despite their continuing effort to get their jobs back.
- The group of farmers in Albasia, who all their harvests had been burnt in last February by the Sudanese forces, were arrested on 2nd April and released the following day after they have been warned not to report any case or to declare that it was the government that burnt their harvest.
- Nuba people are not safe in Egypt, they are chased and targeted by the Sudanese government with collusion of the host government and silence UNHCR. this led to the gathering of Sudanese people on 23rd April in front of the UNHCR office in Cairo protesting of the insecurity and absence of protection.
- On 29th April 2013 Hashim Nimir (the son of Almesiriya tribe chief community leader), who joined the SPLM-N last January, appeal to all his tribe to stop joining the government militias and come to the SPLA - N instead. This move is expected to have an effect on the ground as he is such an influential person.
- HUDO spotted four detainees from South Kordofan (Misariya tribe), who have been in detention since 2010 without any legal procedure. They were accused of being members of the Justice and Equality Movement (JEM). It is alleged that they have been kept for such a long period because they continue refusing the government request to be enrolled in the militia. below are their details:

- Galaha Rahmtallah Galaha – in EL Obeid prison, he was arrested in El mairam then transferred to Babanousa, Kadugli and finally Al Obaied. He was arrested after both parents were taken hostages, then he was called by the local government commissioner that he should hand himself for his parents to be released.
- Mohammed Baballah Abu-Galambo - Kadogli prison.
- Zain Wanees Abdalla Hussein - Kadogli prison.
- Abu Elgasim Mohammed - Kadogli prison.
- The SPLM - N have released six detainees, one woman and five men, among them is (Elhusseiny Elfaki Aulwan) who was reported earlier by HUDO

Summary

The tragedy of South Kordofan people is getting worse and worse and the number of the IDPs is dramatically increasing everyday and with no access to aid. Sudan government still denying the predicament and trying to hide it as much as it could. Now the government appeared the IDPs in El Rahad (regard, ethnicity and this displacement occurred due to SRF attacks), we can use this passage in our pressure which through it we can get the others IDPs (sure by appealing the INGOs the other IDPs can join the announce part). The pressure which has been exerted by local and international organizations proved to be effective and freeing some detainees and mitigating the arbitrary detentions. Therefore, there is a need to intensify pressure to free the rest of the detainees and to know the fate of the forcibly disappeared ones. We, HUDO, appeal to all organizations to exert its utmost efforts to bring about an end to the worsening and tragic situation in South Kordofan.

HUDO appeals to the national and international community to:

- ✚ Put pressure on the Sudan Government to allow an immediate unconditional access to humanitarian aid to all IDPs in Nuba Mountains who are expected to increase with the recent escalation of the fight.
- ✚ To assist in the initiation of investigation into the killings, disappearances, and ethnic cleansing by upholding international law and the pursuance of justice as demanded by the international community.
- ✚ To put more pressure on all parties of the war to get a fair and justifiable solution so as not to go back to war.
