South Kordufan / Nuba Mountains Periodic report (January - February 2013)

Introduction:

It is the 20th months since the war in South Kordufan began. The government of Sudan is still using its national security, military, police and tribal militias to oppress and violate peoples' rights targeting un-armed citizens, detaining and killing them. In the area occupied by government forces, the security forces have repeatedly targeted the Nuba mountains people (civilians), arresting them and hiding some in un gazette cells, torture them both physically and psychologically, as well as using tribal and racist words in dis-regard to Sudan constitution and international laws . They even harass other groups that sympathize with the Nuba people.

Most of this harassment and oppression is severely carried out in the remaining villages and gold mining areas like Talodi area. They cheat, loot and even arrest people basing on personal grudges/issues. The aggression is more severe in the IDP camps that have been created. In other places especially those neighboring the IDP camps, they burn down peoples' farms and harvests (food). On the other side (SPLM area), air bombardment is always carried out by troops from El Obeid airport on un armed people in villages instead of SPLA fighters (nubareporter.org , southkordufanmediacenter.org).

In the last two months, there has been no shelling from SPLA towards towns.

Political Situation

The Political situation in the Nuba Mountain region still remains uncertain due to the controversial political statements from government officials. For instance, the Vice President Ali Osman Taha on 20th Dec 2012 in his speech at Elfoula town promised to establish a new state of West Kordofan, that was to be declared on the Independence Day on 1st Jan 2013 by El-Bashir (the President of the Republic of Sudan). Since then, there has been official silence on such promise and no any concrete step is been taken, but its repercussions was extended, to effect the tribal groups within the region. This happened when different tribal groups began organizing themselves and threatening each other on which group will take the lead in upcoming new state hence the following was happened:

- The Hammar Tribe announced in a press release that they will not be part of the new state unless it's Capital is El-Nehoud town ,otherwise they will proceed their demand for a new state for Hammar.
- The Nuba groups in Lagawa area announced in a press conference held at Sudan News Agency (SUNA) conference hall on 27th Dec 2012, their rejection to the new Western Kordofan state and vowed to resort to other options if the government proceeded to it, which got a wide support from other Nubian groups.

- Some of Missiriya also began rising their concerns against the government because of domination from certain sub-tribe to all new state's government positions.

Generally the promise of the new state has created a serious tension among Nuba and Arab groups, on the other hand between Arab groups themselves, which means that it will lead to a tribal conflict. It is clear the government's goal in the promises of new state was to create more tensions and fuel the ethnic strife between different ethnic groups in the region, after its failure to end the conflict politically or militarily.

Since early last October, the government began (aggressively) distributing weapons to Missiriya. This process was fully supervised by the Higlig Oil protection garrison commander the brigade / Kamal Abdel-Marouf. This gives the implication that the promise for the new state was a plan to encourage the Missiriya group to get more involved in government proxy war in the region. This has led to a counter mobilization inside Missiriya group led by some intellectuals which also resulted into assassination attempt against the Brigade / Kamal Abdel-Marouf by a young Missiriya man during the process of distribution of weapons, after the inadvertent conversation with them when they received weapons and declared their refusal to participate in the war. This led the Missiriya area to be more closer to the opposition camp than before. The joining of Hashim Nimir(member of the prominent Nimir family) to the ranks of the Sudanese People's Liberation Army (SPLA) may lead to a change the shape of the conflict.

Humanitarian Situation

The forced displacement occurred as a result of the governmental evacuation order (May 2012), the militia's attacks in Sug-Eljabel villages (July-2012) and the war between government forces and the SPLA (Aug-2012) in the area of Moreib and Tassai. People were forced to flee to towns of Al Abbasiya and Rashad. Later because of government's refusal to set up IDP camps, people were forced for the second time to flee to the northern part of Al Abbasiya locality joining those that had fled there before them, and all gathered creating a camp in Sept-2012. This very camp grew bigger and bigger in size regardless of challenges from government like;

- o Denying them food and blocking food supply from other sympathizers.
- o Arresting, raping and abducting some of the camp dwellers.
- o General insecurity.

The IDP camps mentioned above are;

- Al-mashaggah Camp, populated by 650 families.
- Um Marreh village Camp, populated by 500 families.
- Mabsut village Camp, populated by 480 families.
- Gurdud Nyama, populated by 70 families.
- IDPs in Wakara, 60 families settled within.
- IDPs in Tabassa, 45 families located within.

NB; For further information about camps, read HUDO report. Situation of South Kordufan IDPs (Part 1)

Arbitrary Arrests

As mentioned above, this kind of arrests have been going on and the security forces have continuously targeted the Nuba people wherever they are, regardless of gender or age. They have detention centres all over Sudan. Currently, HUDO is carrying out an extensive exercise of identifying all detainees in various detention centres. So far, the names indicated table below(pages I to IX) has detailed information about some of the detainees. The process is still going on.

General observations of the detainees

- The Nuba mountains detainees are suffering very abusive humiliation and racial discrimination. Furthermore, they are always detained for longer periods than others except Blue Nile and Darfuri in some cases.
- The majority of detainees are kept without any charges issued against them, and some are kept in government organs that have no any legal duties/mandate to arrest them (e.g PDF, MI and tribal militias).
- The majority of detainees especially those in Nuba mountains have been denied any access to family visits since their arrest furthermore most of them remained naked for their clothes are used up due to over wearing and no change no washing for longer periods that exceeds a year in most cases.
- The all of the detainees in the region who have been working in public offices have been denied their salaries which extended the punishment up to their families, while those who had income generating activities or assets such as taxis, bikes, cars, etc, the government confiscated them all.
- The detainees were interrogated in illegal condition under severe torture by NISS where the victims were forced to give false statements against themselves.
- Congested in large numbers in very small cells and poorly ventilated iron containers.
- Sleep on the bare ground.
- No adequate food provided, some have died of starvation.

The accusations and the reasons for arrest can be categorized as follow;

- The political and military affiliation to SPLM/A northern sector and those in SAF who have been accused of spying for SPLM.
- Spying for SPLM/A North (mentioning anything about conflict in the region in Telephone conversation is enough reason for arrest).
- Accusation of correcting distant shelling of SPLM by phone.
- Fabrication of accusations forcible confession under torture (machination to settle personal problems).

Systematic targeting

The authorities has since the beginning of the year began a systematic targeting of the different Nuba language and cultural centers, and also targeting the Nuba Christians and their centers which can be explained as follow.

- Kuku institute for Nuba language and heritages which is located in Omdurman was closed up(on 16th January 2013) by the government security authorities (NISS) and the manager was arrested, his laptop and the Mobile Phone were confiscated as well as the certificate of the registration and other documents of the institute. The manager was released on condition that he reports to their office every morning.
- The NINU center for languages and computer science a member of UNESCO Clubs Union was closed up by the security authorities (on 16th January 2013) without any reason, noting that the UNESCO Clubs Union has different centers working across the country and all are uniformly certified work. None of them is closed apart from the Nino center.
- Evangelical Cultural Center library in Khartoum was closed up on 18th Feb 2013 by NISS and confiscated books, media tools and documents belonging to the library. Also arrested three people, including a priest and have not been released yet.
- Gideon Theological College (GTC) in Omdurman was raided on 24th Feb 2013 by NISS forces and arrested three Christian Nuba and later released them on condition that they report to NISS office on a daily basis.

- The NISS also raided the office of the Khartoum based Fellowship of Christian University Students (FCUS) on 24th Feb 2013 and arrested two of its executive members one had been released on condition to report to their office daily, while the other is still under arrest. The NISS also on the same day raided FCUS-guest house in another area in Khartoum and confiscated a car belonging to FCUS.

The reason behind the systematic targeting

According to HUDO's observation, it is clear that the systematic campaign of the government is part of a plan targeting the native Nubians. Even the timing is arranged to destroy all institutions that gather Nubians either religious or social as the beginning of implementing the Univision (single Islamic Arabian), denial of Nubian Christians' religion rights and Nuba people's rights to practice their culture or social activities. This was clear when the government security found no charges to issue against the innocent Nubian church leaders and they began accusing them of Christianization and accessing funds from outside Sudan in illegal ways.

Breaking News:

1. On 21st Jan 2013, the judge released Jaleilla Khamees after he condemned her (unjustly) under articles (21 , 64 of Sudan criminal law), and he was satisfied by how long she spent in jail.
2. On 3rd Feb 2013, the prosecutor attorney released Elnazeer Osman Jomaa under condition of bill, after more than a year in jail.
3. On 25th Feb 2013, Ibrahim Elbaih was assassinated crushed by NISS car (as car accident) at Khartoum North. His family discovered about his death after four days when they found his dead body in a Khartoum hospital morgue.
4. The locating of the Southern Sudanese rebel (DC) at Abu Jibaiha area made further tension as well as tension in the demarcation of the border between Sudan and South Sudan at Kaka area. As a result of this tension, 18 civilian Victims died (on 7 – 08 Feb 2013). See HUDO report (Other Conflict) issued on 12th Feb. 2013
5. The NISS have burned some farm harvests (sorghum) in area of Al Abbasiya locality nearby the IDPs camps, specifically farms owned by those who gave the IDPs food aid.
6. On 26th Feb 2013, pupil Mawada Ahammed Sharafeldin (11 years old) was kidnapped in Dilling / South Kordufan, by Egyptian called Mohammed Hamdy and his son. The kid was found tied in the abandoned home and medical checks made to her reported no rape. The case was opened against them and they were arrested.
7. In the beginning of February 2013, twelve detainees were transferred from Dilling to Kadogli. Most of them detained since June 2011 when the conflict started (see the remarks on table).

Appeal

The situation in South Kordufan is still going from bad to worse, as well as displaced people in all cities of the Sudan. As for the situation of the IDPs, it is extremely worse. They are in need for any aid, and before that they need protection from the oppression of those international criminal leaders. Their violations still fall under the threat of international crimes. They are still running systematic killing operation extrajudicial towards the Nubian tribes, nevertheless abducting, raping, looting, burning and the forced displacement of villages, in addition the use of human aid in order to evacuate the camps. This failure of arresting them, has enabled them to keep their crimes continuing with lack of respect to Geneva Convention and international humanitarian law. So (HUDO) recommends an urgent action by international community as follows:

- ☒ Need to put pressure on government of Sudan to allow National and International NGOs to access IDP camps, to provide food and non-food aid. The presence of NGOs in camps will help in monitoring the protection issues.

- ☒ Need pressure of international and national organizations to raise the mission of the Special Envoy as to include prisons' visits and authority of deciding in reports of violations submitted by humanitarian organizations. By the way, the High Commission for Human Rights (Sudan) is inefficient, and not respected by the government authorities.
- ☒ To continue with international advocacy campaigns of detainees, it has proved useful.
- ☒ The international corporation must put more pressure on the government of Sudan to stop the systematic targeting against Nuba people and respect the international humanitarian laws, and especially air bombardments against the civilians, and to take all measures necessary, including no fly zone in the war prone areas.
- ☒ The international community to form a committee to investigate on the issue of the detainees in South Kordufan / Nuba Mountains and ask the government to disclose the information about the detainees and the number of individuals who are still missing so as to ensure that their human rights
- ☒ are respected, and allow them to access free and fair trial as soon as possible.
