Arrests at Um marreh Camp/village

Um Marrehⁱ village is located (40 km) Northwest of Al Abbasiya and (50 km) Southwest of Um Rawaba. Between August - December 2012, many citizens from Elmoreib villagesⁱⁱ settled here after they were displaced as a result of attacks from government troops in Elmoreib and Talasey mountain.

The government authorities have kept on targeting the IDPsⁱⁱⁱ, by arresting them and burning their huts (shelters)^{iv} accusing them of being affiliated to SPLM/N. The arrests go on without any legal backing hence denying them their human and legal rights.

On Wednesday (16th July 2014) a group of militias (PDF) soldiers attacked and burnt/destroyed two houses within the camp. This was after they had failed to get the house owners arrested.

The two (2) houses owners are;

1. Mr. Ali Ibrahim; 35 years old, Laborer

Appeal

The IDPs in South Kordufan state are facing insecurity yet the government of Sudan denies the existence of IDPs and as a result, it rejects any passage of the NGOs or accessibility by humanitarian organizations. Therefore, it's the responsibility on the international community to act more efficient on pressing Sudan government to allow entrance of NGOs and aid workers to those IDPs and provide them by security and protection.
