According to Kologi residents, there was an agreement and decision made by the state security committee concerning Dar Ali people. The following day, Kologi residents of many tribes including Kawahla, Kenana and others organized and attacked Dar Ali nomadic camp. This attack occurred while Sudan Armed Force watched but did not intervene to stop the attack.

Currently, the situation in Kologi is volatile and needs real government intervention.

HUDO Centre is very concerned about the situation of civilians in conflict areas and calls upon:

- Sudan government to urgently solve the tribal conflict and the insecurity situation in Kologi.
- Sudan government to ensure the rule of law, safety of people and their properties.
- Sudan government to hold to account the security committee in South Kordufan State.
- Sudan government to dissolve the government militias and disarm people with unlicensed firearms.
